THE PEOPLE BEHIND THE DEALS IN THE NY REAL ESTATE SCENE

Attorney Joshua Stein Debuts Commercial Real Estate Practice

Introducing his new law practice with signature style and cachet, leading commercial real estate attorney Joshua Stein feted clients, colleagues and friends at a series of private open house soirees held in his offices at 59 East 54th Street.

Guests were impressed by a dazzling display of the firm's state-of-the-art, high-tech systems supporting clients coast-to-coast and internationally.

Stein handles major transactions (financing, leasing, joint ventures and hotels, among others) and consulting assignments, such as expert testimony, arbitration and specialty co-counsel work. Recently named the second most highly regarded real estate lawyer in the world by London-based "International Who's Who of Real Estate Lawyers 2010," Stein is already delivering "big firm" sophistication and experience to his clients.
